Draft: Instructional Plan Options for Students

Option #1: Phase Dependent In-Person Instruction: The District's instructional plan will follow the instructional plan below depending upon the phase that the District's MERC region is assigned. In-person instruction that is allowed to take place will be held according to the District's collectively bargained calendar for the 2020-2021 school year. This includes in-person instruction up to five (5) days per week, following the clock hour schedule that the District has traditionally followed in previous years. Safety protocols that have been reviewed by the District Health Department #10 will be implemented. Students may transition from the in-person instructional model to the District's virtual instructional model at designated times during the year.

Note: All students will be scheduled for in-person instruction, expecting that all students will return to school on Tuesday, September 8, 2020 unless a parent registers their child for option 2 below.

Option #2: Virtual Campus / Remote Learning from Home: Any student in grades K-12 will have the option to participate fully in an online learning program facilitated by a certified LASD teacher of record. Students will have a LASD mentor teacher, and will be provided an opportunity to connect virtually with cohort peer groups of students as a way to stay socially connected with peer students. Students will retain the full rights and privileges of a LASD student and will be allowed to participate in extracurricular activities and athletics, as long as the student meets the minimum eligibility requirements to participate in that extracurricular activity or event.

Note: Students must register and enroll in order to be eligible for this program. Sign-up and registration will begin in July 2020. Students can elect to attend this program for one, two, or three trimesters.

Parents must understand that this past year's remote learning model was a stop gap measure that was put into place to ensure a continuity of learning. The learning model that will be implemented this coming school year will be much more rigorous, including new and advanced learning. Parents must be committed to supporting teachers in providing learning support for their children in this environment, to include the monitoring of the completion of their assignments.

Outlined below are sample schedules for what a student may expect when enrolling in the online learning program option. Elementary aged students can expect to have assignments in the core subject areas each day, along with assignments in auxiliary courses one or two times per week. High school and middle school students should expect to have assignments in each course, each day.
